

New Mexico Compilation Commission announces the addition of the New Mexico Administrative Code (NMAC) to NMOneSource.com.

The NMAC is updated biweekly based on the Register as published by the Administration Law Division of the Commission on Public Records.

TIP: Searching Administrative Codes with the Advanced Search form

- Select the Advanced Search link on the NMOneSource home page.

The screenshot shows the homepage of NMOneSource.com. At the top left is the logo for NMOneSource.com with the tagline "Your Exclusive Source for Official NM Laws". To the right is the logo for the New Mexico Compilation Commission, "Official Legal Publisher of State of New Mexico". Below these are three buttons: "Home", "Scope of Coverage", and "Contact Us". A welcome message reads: "Welcome to NMOneSource.com 2.0! Free, online public access to the master database of official state laws, published by the New Mexico Compilation Commission, is now available to the citizens of New Mexico. NMOneSource.com is the official legal research tool of the New Mexico courts and legislature. Search and retrieve annotated statutes and court rules, appellate court opinions, and more from the collections below. For training videos and FAQs, click here." In the top right corner, there are links for "Login", "Sign up", "Help", and "Print". Below this is a dark grey header with the text "Search All Databases". Underneath is a search input field with the placeholder text "Search" and a search icon. A large white arrow with a black outline points to the right, towards the text "Advanced Search" which is written in red.

- Select New Mexico Laws and Court Rules.
- From the Collection drop-down box, select New Mexico Administrative Code (the last entry).
- Type in search term(s) and select Search.
